An Editorial

The Gettysburg Times joins with the large area it serves in recognizing the fifth anniversary of Radio Station WGET.

Since its dedication on August 27, 1950, "The Voice of Adams County" has ably served the people of its community, which includes not alone all of Adams County but sections of Maryland within the county's normal trading area.

Through its five-year life, WGET has not missed a single day performing its 18-hour stint of providing local, national and worldwide news, music, sports, special features and entertainment to its thousands of listeners and of appraising them through announcements of the commercial news of the merchants and business enterprises of the trading area.

Forceful Factor

WGET, on the basis of its record of performance, has taken its place as a forceful factor in the community. A colleague of The Gettysburg Times, although entirely separate in its operation, WGET, like The Gettysburg Times, flies the flag of Adams County's first disseminator of news, the late Robert G. Harper, who in the early 1800's proclaimed the slogan "With Honor To Ourselves And Profit To Our Patrons." That was the policy of Mr. Harper's "Adams

FAIR FLOWERS FEATURED ITEM FOR EXHIBITORS

Because the hot dry weather earlier in the year might cause a scarcity of fresh blooms at fair time the flower division of the South Mountain Fair this year has created four classes in which fresh cut flowers will not be required. Mrs. Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. 1, chairman of the division announced today.

One class calls for arrangements of dried, mixed flowers, grasses, gourds, etc. Another is for kitchen arrangements using vegetables only. Another is an arrangement suitable for a man's desk, using potted plants or vines, and the fourth, an artistic arrangement of fruit.

New classes permitting modernistic arrangements of flowers have been added, and the number of classes open to youngsters has been increased, Mrs. Lott said.

12 Prizes For Children

Previously only three prizes were awarded to all youngsters up to age 12. This year there will be 12 prizes awarded for children, including classes for boys and girls up to eight years of age and classes, with prize money doubled, for girls and boys from 8 to 12 years of age.

Specimen classes remain the same as in former years with the inclusion of several new types of flowers which were entered last year in sufficient quantity to create a new class. They include azalea-mums, yellow asters, red single petunias and among the roses, classes for floribunda, ployanthus and baby rose.

The classes for artistic arrangements award a $2 first prize, $1.50 second and $1 third in each class—double the money offered last year. Three types of centerpieces for dining room tables will be judged: modern, colonial and contemporary. Mantel arrangements will be another classification, and arrangements suitable for a coffee table.

Entrants in the flower division need not even own a vase, according to Mrs. Lott. There is a division for arrangements in containers not ordinarily considered a vase, such as coffee pots.

Miss Helen Martin, R. 5, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of pink crystalite designed with a strapless bodice of lace

Plums were available in quantity and grapes made their first appearance of the year this morning at the Farmer's Market. The plums were selling at 25 cents a quart, while both green and purple grapes were offered at 20 cents a quart box.

Plenty of peaches were still to be seen, at prices ranging from 20 to 30 cents a quart. Summer Rambo apples were also plentiful, with prices remaining at 25 and 30 cents a quart peck and 40 to 55 a half peck. Crabapples were 15 cents a quart.

The small supply of corn sold out quickly this morning. Yellow Cross went at 35 cents a dozen and Stowell's Evergreen at 50 a dozen. Tomatoes, some of them still showing the effects of the overabundant rains, sold for 15 to 35 cents a quart, depending upon the size and quality.

Other Prices

Root crops were more in evidence than in previous weeks. Heaping baskets of potatoes were on display, at rates of ten and 15 cents a quart box. Beets were also plentiful, at ten cents a bunch and five cents apiece. Carrots were ten cents a bunch, and onions ten and 15 a quart box.

Iceberg lettuce was ten cents a box, with watercress offered at 15 a box and parsley at five cents a bunch. Squash were ten cents apiece, and eggplants 15 and 20 cents each. Rhubarb was ten cents a bunch.

A few stringless beans were sold at 35 cents a quart. Peppers were two for five, and cucumbers ranged from five cents each to "three for five." Eggs were 40 to 60 cents a dozen, and dressed chickens 55 cents a pound.

Too Much Gab!

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Because a woman refused to get off her party line yesterday. Fire Chief John W. Gallagher reported, a fire caused $6,900 damage before it was brought under control.

Chief Gallagher said a neighbor tried for five minutes to get the woman off the telephone line, but the woman refused. Finally the neighbor sent a youngster to the corner to pull the fire alarm box.

One home in Huntington's West end was destroyed, and two others were heavily damaged. The fire chief reported that the blaze left 19 persons homeless.

"If the department had been called five minutes earlier," he said, "much more could have been saved."

No one was seriously injured.

U. S. Will Guarantee Israel, Arab Boundaries If They Can Find Permanent Peace Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower Administration today pinned high hopes on a dramatic American offer to guarantee the boundaries of Israel and rival Arab states if they can work out a permanent peace settlement.

The offer was made by Secretary of State Dulles yesterday in a speech before the Council on Foreign Relations in New York stressing that the United States was acting as "a friend of both Israelis and Arabs."

Dulles said he made the proposals "with the authority of President Eisenhower."

The move constituted an unprecedented American bid to settle the long-standing Israel-Arab conflict once and for all. It was backed by other offers of U.S. help which could run into many millions of dollars.

The proposals, it was learned, were worked out in the State Department, passed on by the National Security Council, and perfected in conferences with Eisenhower when the President was in Washington briefly this week.

Block Red Plan

The timing of the announcement apparently was influenced by reports over several months that Russia is trying to extend its influence in the strategic, oil-rich Middle East with offers of economic assistance and military equipment.

The Soviet policy appears to be aimed at trying to develop some kind of neutral bloc in the region. The aim of the United States, Britain and France has been to create a Middle East defensive system allied with the West.

The great difficulty standing in the way of the Western goal has been continuing hostility between Israel and the Arab states.

A 1949 armistice brought their full-scale war to an end. But there have been numerous border skirmishes and raids since. Just yesterday an Egyptian military spokesman in Cairo reported that 13 Israeli soldiers had been killed in two of three clashes this week near the Egyptian-held Gaza strip.

The voice of America beamed a special broadcast of Dulles' speech to the Middle East and followed this with Arabic and Hebrew translations.

There was no immediate reaction from any of the Arab governments. But Middle Eastern diplomats here approached the news cautiously. The eight Arab League members were expected to confer among themselves to prepare a joint formal reply.

At the U.N., Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold welcomed Dulles' proposals, praising their "generous and constructive spirit."

Post $2,000 Cash Bail With Justice

Leslie Bricker, 35, and Minnie Bricker, 29, Richmond Furnace, were released on $1,000 bail each Friday night for the November court by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore on charges of passing bad checks and false pretense.

The couple was arrested by state police charged with cashing two $20 checks, drawn on the Citizens National Bank, of Waynesboro, at the Arendtsville National Bank, when, according to the information, they had no funds at the Waynesboro bank.

Justice Basehore said bail was posted in the form of two $1,000 bills brought to his office by a friend of the Brickers, after the couple had spent several hours in the Adams County jail.

FLOOD FUND IS SKYROCKETED TO $2,145.75 TODAY

Adams Countians contributed $658 to local Red Cross Headquarters on Friday for flood relief victims. This marked the largest day's contributions since the appeal was made and brought the total contributed to $2,145.75 with 115 individuals, 9 businesses and 2 organizations contributing.

An Aspers resident sent ten times as much as the one which said in part:

"We lucky ones who still have our families and a house, table and stove to get our Sunday dinner should all be thankful and do something about those who have suffered such heavy tragedies. Even if every Adams County resident would send just a dime to the Red Cross, it would be a big help."

As Hurricane Edith boils up at sea, victims O. Connie and Diane are still salvaging possessions from mud and water. For many there is no possibility of salvage, everything they owned has been swept away or destroyed. Even their jobs, in many cases, have been wiped out by the flood.

Need More Money

There's still a lot of room on the Red Cross list for Adams Countians. And there is a great deal of need in the stricken regions. There are almost as many homeless in the flood state area as there are residents of Adams County.

About 1,200 families are in great need in the five southeastern counties of Pennsylvania alone. The Red Cross needs a minimum of $8,000,000 to assist these in immediate need. But they can do the work only with your help... your voluntary contribution of money.

It will be a brighter weekend if you send your donation to Red Cross headquarters, 141 Baltimore St. You'll pray better on Sunday, if you give flood help today.

Adams Countians contributed $658 to local Red Cross Headquarters on Friday for flood relief victims. This marked the largest day's contributions since the appeal was made and brought the total contributed to $2,145.75 with 115 individuals, 9 businesses and 2 organizations contributing.

An Aspers resident sent ten times as much as the one which said in part:

"We lucky ones who still have our families and a house, table and stove to get our Sunday dinner should all be thankful and do something about those who have suffered such heavy tragedies. Even if every Adams County resident would send just a dime to the Red Cross, it would be a big help."

As Hurricane Edith boils up at sea, victims O. Connie and Diane are still salvaging possessions from mud and water. For many there is no possibility of salvage, everything they owned has been swept away or destroyed. Even their jobs, in many cases, have been wiped out by the flood.

Need More Money

There's still a lot of room on the Red Cross list for Adams Countians. And there is a great deal of need in the stricken regions. There are almost as many homeless in the flood state area as there are residents of Adams County.

About 1,200 families are in great need in the five southeastern counties of Pennsylvania alone. The Red Cross needs a minimum of $8,000,000 to assist these in immediate need. But they can do the work only with your help... your voluntary contribution of money.

It will be a brighter weekend if you send your donation to Red Cross headquarters, 141 Baltimore St. You'll pray better on Sunday, if you give flood help today.

PLUMS, APPLES PLENTIFUL AT FARMER'S MART

Plums were available in quantity and grapes made their first appearance of the year this morning at the Farmer's Market. The plums were selling at 25 cents a quart, while both green and purple grapes were offered at 20 cents a quart box.

Plenty of peaches were still to be seen, at prices ranging from 20 to 30 cents a quart. Summer Rambo apples were also plentiful, with prices remaining at 25 and 30 cents a quart peck and 40 to 55 a half peck. Crabapples were 15 cents a quart.

The small supply of corn sold out quickly this morning. Yellow Cross went at 35 cents a dozen and Stowell's Evergreen at 50 a dozen. Tomatoes, some of them still showing the effects of the overabundant rains, sold for 15 to 35 cents a quart, depending upon the size and quality.

Other Prices

Root crops were more in evidence than in previous weeks. Heaping baskets of potatoes were on display, at rates of ten and 15 cents a quart box. Beets were also plentiful, at ten cents a bunch and five cents apiece. Carrots were ten cents a bunch, and onions ten and 15 a quart box.

Iceberg lettuce was ten cents a box, with watercress offered at 15 a box and parsley at five cents a bunch. Squash were ten cents apiece, and eggplants 15 and 20 cents each. Rhubarb was ten cents a bunch.

A few stringless beans were sold at 35 cents a quart. Peppers were two for five, and cucumbers ranged from five cents each to "three for five." Eggs were 40 to 60 cents a dozen, and dressed chickens 55 cents a pound.

FAIR FLOWERS FEATURED ITEM FOR EXHIBITORS

Because the hot dry weather earlier in the year might cause a scarcity of fresh blooms at fair time the flower division of the South Mountain Fair this year has created four classes in which fresh cut flowers will not be required. Mrs. Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. 1, chairman of the division announced today.

One class calls for arrangements of dried, mixed flowers, grasses, gourds, etc. Another is for kitchen arrangements using vegetables only. Another is an arrangement suitable for a man's desk, using potted plants or vines, and the fourth, an artistic arrangement of fruit.

New classes permitting modernistic arrangements of flowers have been added, and the number of classes open to youngsters has been increased, Mrs. Lott said.

12 Prizes For Children

Previously only three prizes were awarded to all youngsters up to age 12. This year there will be 12 prizes awarded for children, including classes for boys and girls up to eight years of age and classes, with prize money doubled, for girls and boys from 8 to 12 years of age.

Specimen classes remain the same as in former years with the inclusion of several new types of flowers which were entered last year in sufficient quantity to create a new class. They include azalea-mums, yellow asters, red single petunias and among the roses, classes for floribunda, ployanthus and baby rose.

The classes for artistic arrangements award a $2 first prize, $1.50 second and $1 third in each class—double the money offered last year. Three types of centerpieces for dining room tables will be judged: modern, colonial and contemporary. Mantel arrangements will be another classification, and arrangements suitable for a coffee table.

Entrants in the flower division need not even own a vase, according to Mrs. Lott. There is a division for arrangements in containers not ordinarily considered a vase, such as coffee pots.

Miss Helen Martin, R. 5, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of pink crystalite designed with a strapless bodice of lace

Three Properties Are Transferred

The following property transfers have been filed in the office of the register and recorder:

Pennsylvania May Increase Price Of Gas Cent A Gallon

HARRISBURG (AP)—The administration today looked to possible enactment of a one cent a gallon boost in the state's gasoline tax to raise the bulk of 57 million dollars needed to pay for emergency public property damage caused by last week's floods.

A special legislative committee recommended the 57 millions appropriation and suggested that 45 millions be taken from the motor fund through a boost in the present five cents a gallon state gasoline tax.

The other 12 million dollars would be appropriated from the state's general fund earmarked for flood disaster purposes. However, the bipartisan group failed to suggest a definite tax to raise that amount.

Three-Hour Session
The recommendations were announced yesterday following a three-hour session by a six-member subcommittee acting for a large legislative delegation.

The subcommittee was appointed to work out a pay-as-you-go plan for flood relief during a meeting of legislative leaders with Gov. Leader.

Recommendations of the subcommittee will go to the General Assembly which reconvenes on Monday after a two-week recess. Flood relief business is expected to keep both chambers busy until next Friday. A minimum five days is required to get a new bill through both houses.

The subcommittee estimated that about $10,400,000 will be required for stream channel clearance and rectifying stream flow with the balance needed by the departments of health, military affairs and public assistance and the civil defense council.

Highways Are Damaged
Largest portion of the recommended appropriation would come from the motor fund because most damage suffered by commonwealth property in northeastern Pennsylvania was on highways and bridges.

The motor fund may be used only for highway and bridge work. The suggested appropriation was broken down in this way:

Thirty millions for the Highways Department for reconstruction of roads and bridges damaged by flood waters and 15 millions for municipalities for help in repair and reconstruction of locally maintained roads and bridges.

In suggesting the gasoline tax boost, the subcommittee acted on the recommendation of the entire legislative delegation for the pay-as-you-go program.

$52 Million From Gas
An increase of one cent a gallon in the gasoline tax would produce about $52 million dollars in two years.

In his budget message last April, Leader asked for a one cent boost in the gasoline tax on a permanent basis.

The original suggestion for the tax boost came from Sen. Scott (R-Carbon) at the meeting with Gov. Leader. Scott was also a member of the subcommittee.

Other members of the group were: Sens. Yosko (D-Northampton) and Kessler (R-Lancaster) and Reps. Bower (R-Northumberland), Yetter (D-Monroe) and Reidenbach (D-Lackawanna).

Henry Leader, Gov. Leader's brother and legislative aide, represented the chief executive at the subcommittee session.

Estimated Damage
The Highways Department estimated damage to state roads at 25 millions; local road and street damage as 25 to 30 millions, and 8 to 12 millions for the Delaware River Bridge Commission.

Leader has tentatively fixed at 158 million dollars the damage to all public property in the flood area. The state would be entitled to about 25 millions in federal funds on a matching basis.

In splitting between the motor fund and general fund the amounts to be raised for relief, the subcommittee also acted on a recommendation of the legislative conference.

The breakdown of general fund costs was estimated by department heads as follows:

Forests and waters—$10,372,000. Health—$75,000. Military affairs—$26,375.

Maj. Gen. A. J. Drexel Biddle Jr., adjutant general, said costs to his department would have been $150,000 but for the fact that 1,800 guardsmen on annual summer training were used in the emergency.

Attending the bipartisan conference with Leader were:

Here And There

News Collected At Random

Ten states, led by Minnesota, have been selected to receive the nation's top awards for the extent and quality of their driver education programs conducted during the 1954-55 school year. The selections were made by 12 educational and traffic safety leaders comprising the board of judges of the Eighth Annual National High School Driver Education Award Program.

After examining reports from all 48 states and the District of Columbia, the judges selected Minnesota and Massachusetts to receive top-ranking Awards of Excellence. Awards of Honor were earned by California, Delaware, New York, Oklahoma, Vermont, while three states, Arizona, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, qualified for Awards of Merit.

Thirteen thousand square miles — an aggregate of land equal to the combined areas of Maryland, Rhode Island and Delaware — has been set aside by the Province of Quebec for its world-famed system of parks and wildlife sanctuaries. These parks and game reserves, which are administered by the Department of Game and Fisheries, are located in selected mountainous regions as far removed as possible from the influence of modern towns and cities. Some of them actually enclose French-Canadian villages where the way of life is not tremendously different from that practiced by the forefathers of the present inhabitants who settled there than three hundred years ago.

In times like these, when nearly everyone has a job and a car and an electric refrigerator and a television set, when wages are going up and the future looks rosier than it has looked in a generation, some of us are likely to get into the "easy come, easy go" frame of mind.

It is a joyous frame of mind but hardly a prudent one. It is true the country is prosperous. It is true the outlook is for a continuance of good times. It is true that most of us will manage somehow to pay off the debts we have accumulated during the days of easy credit.

But—and there is always a but.

In the old days, there used to be a saying, "Keep something in the sock." In more genteel circles, its form was "Lay something aside for a rainy day." However you decide to say it, it is good advice.

One of the best socks is a United States Savings Bond. It is patriotic to buy savings bonds. They are a brake on inflation. They help to keep the value of money stable. They don't hold out the hope of glittering rewards. They aren't for gamblers who are looking for a lot of fast bucks. Rather, they are for the man who is thinking ahead, thinking about his wife and his family and the uncertainties of the future.

MORE CREDIT GOES TO FATHER

Fathers are now more generally credited with helping their children get a rounded education in life than they did in the days of the "Autoer at the Breakfast Table" or in "Life with Father."

The reason seems to be that in changing times fathers have become more democratic. They have been promoted from family straw bosses to chairmen of family boards, where they hear from other stockholders in the family and exercise judicial restraint.

This seems to be the consensus among psychologists observing family problems. Such experts observe, incidentally, that in many cases the father is no longer the only wage earner. Family income may be supplemented by the wife, a son or a daughter.

And these experts cite the influence of newspapers, radio and television, women's clubs and as having substituted for the father's traditional prestige as the main link with the outer world.

But apparently the father who builds a companionship with his children is strengthened by these changes. He finds there is much more to the role of being a father than serving as a mother-substitute.

Father's Interest Grows
One of the complaints of parent-teacher organizations has been that fathers ignored their meetings. But recent increases in school needs and school taxes have brought about noticeable changes in such situations. Home owning fathers are becoming more interested in where and how their tax money is spent.

Community participation of this type has been found to have a definite effect on children. They like to know that their father is "making the grade" with other people, "says one authority, who adds: "The father has an important function in interpreting to the young child the community of which he is a part. He will let him learn about his job through visits to the office, through a Saturday excursion to the factory, through a ride on the milk truck—not for JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla. (AP)—This town's first parking meters were installed last year before the ordinance authorizing them became effective.

By the time the law took effect, conscientious parkers had poured over $300 into the machines. Since the money was collected without authorization of law, the city donated it to the March of Dimes.

Now the situation has been repeated with 200 more meters. On the date they were supposed to go into operation, officials found they already had collected $164.35.

FALL INTO FEED GRINDER KILLS FARM BOY, FOUR

BOONSBORO, Md. (AP)—It was supper time and there was no sign of young Jonathan Carney Harrel on the farm.

Then it was remembered the 4-year-old youngster had been playing at noon near the barn where his father was grinding corn stalks into silage.

They looked into the silo. There they found the remains of Jonathan.

State Trooper Clyde Tucker said the boy's 7-year-old sister told him it happened. She and the boy were sitting on the end of a wagon used to haul the stalks to a conveyor belt which carries them to a grinding machine. Then the ground-up pieces go through a four-inch pipe into the silo and are stored for cattle fodder.

Tucker said the girl said her brother fell off the wagon on to the belt.

The father, Carney Luther Harrel, and George Martz fed two more loads of corn into the machine.

OIL REFINERY BLAST KILLS 2, INJURES OTHERS

WHITING, Ind. (AP)—A terrific blast at the Standard Oil Co. plant, one of the nation's biggest refineries, shook this northern Indiana town today.

At least two deaths resulted from the blast and fire which followed. An undetermined number of persons were reported injured but details were lacking.

A company spokesman said the explosion occurred at 6:15 a.m. in a fluid hydroformer, where gasoline goes through in an improving process.

The terrific blast tossed huge sheets of steel two inches thick and up to 75 feet long more than a block away from the plant. An automobile parked in front of a home a block from the plant was hurled into the house.

Windows were shattered throughout Whiting, a city of 10,000 on the southern tip of Lake Michigan about 16 miles southeast of downtown Chicago.

WIFE LOCKS OUT HUSBAND AFTER CALLING STRIKE

CHICAGO (AP)—Militant Esther Quigley, who ran afoul of the law fighting a strike called by her union-official husband, is resting her case.

The 35-year-old housewife said today she plans no further effort to end the walkout of Local 1214, CIO United Auto Workers, against the Harrison Sheet Metal Co. "I've done all I can do," she said in an interview. "I'm through. My husband, who is partially to blame for more than 400 men being out of work, is locked out of the house now. And, if those men aren't back on the job Monday, he'll stay out for good."

By this, she said, she means she'll institute divorce action against Andrew Quigley, 33, a steward in the union.

Mrs. Quigley's lockout against Andrew began Tuesday because, she explained, "he and a bunch of other smart union officials went around and called the men off the job while they still had a contract and while negotiations for a new contract were going on."

"It's not a question of getting my husband back to work. He's out of a job. He was fired for calling the men out prematurely. But he can let the others go back."

Families Need Checks
"My husband is young and strong and he can get another job. But some of the other men are older and might not be able to get other jobs. A lot of them would go back to work if my husband and those other officials would let them. Their families need the paychecks."

Mrs. Quigley and the wife of another striker went to the picketed plant yesterday to plead that the men return to work.

While there she tangled with Nicholas Prete, president of the union local. Police separated them and both were charged with disorderly conduct. They were released under $10 bond pending a Sept. 1 court appearance.

Mrs. Quigley, mother of four children, had said the workers should end the strike because their children need milk.

Prete walked up to Mrs. Quigley and her companion with a carton of milk and offered it to them. Mrs. Quigley shoved the milk back at Prete and they grappled.

Prete said she tore off his shirt and scratched his shoulder. "It took two cops to pull me off him," said the 126-pound Mrs. Quigley. "It's a good thing they did or, so help me, I would have scratched his eyes out."

Peck, executive director of the Yonkers Council of Churches, Yonkers, N. Y. will deliver the rededication sermon. He was pastor of St. Mary's church from 1927 until 1937. The entire basement of the church has been rebuilt, providing spacious accommodations for the children's department of the church school and a stage for dramatic uses and visual aids. The basement alterations include auxiliary rooms and a new and fully equipped kitchen. There is a new asphalt tile floor, acoustical plaster ceiling and a new lighting system. The contractor was I. H. Crouse and Sons, Littlestown.

Cost $56,697.93
On the main floor of the church, the sanctuary, adult church school room and auxiliary rooms were redecorated in tones of grey-green, ivory and fumed wood pews. A number of memorials were presented to the church, including a painting of Christ, "The Invitation," over the altar and painted by Robert J. Weissmann, of Baltimore. Mr. Weissmann, interior church decorator, was also in charge of the main floor decoration program.

Cost of the rebuilding and redecoration program, begun nearly a year ago, is $56,697.93. The building committee, under the direction of the consistory, included: E. "GREATEST POWER"

The strength of any country is . . . conceived from many things . . . its economics, politics . . . and military wings . . . its wealth of great possessions and . . . its board of shining gold . . . all play a necessary part . . . of power I am told . . . but more important than all these . . . is something greater still . . . a franchise held by people with . . . a promise to fulfill . . . I write of freedom without which . . . the joys of living stop . . . a priceless treasure won with blood . . . that keeps a land on top . . . with freedom ours to have and hold . . . a poor man can be king . . . there is no limit to the scope . . . of what freedom can bring . . . unhampered in our right to work . . . and worship as we choose . . . how can a nation such as ours . . . be ever prone to lose.

FLOOD SET NEW STATE RECORDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Initial surveys by the Department of Forests and Waters showed today that many rivers and creeks in northeastern Pennsylvania rose to record levels during last week's floods.

Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, department secretary, said the surveys and a comparison with flood records covering 175 years, "substantiated estimates that the disaster of last week broke all existing records."

A reading of more than 33 feet on the Broadhead Creek in the ill-fated Stroudsburg area, Goddard said, was about 2½ times as high as the previous known high crest. Other new readings with old records in brackets: Delaware River, Port Jervis, N. Y., 23.91 (23.1); Belvidere, N. J., 30.15 (28.6); Lehigh River, Stoddardsville, Pa., 16.39 (12.03); Tannery, Pa., 22.42 (16.51).

Britain Backs Plan For Near East Peace

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain today threw its support behind the dramatic American proposal to guarantee the boundaries of Israel and rival Arab states if they work out a permanent peace settlement.

Eisenhower administration officials place high hopes on the offer made by Secretary of State Dulles yesterday in a speech before the Council on Foreign Relations in New York.

A Foreign Office statement issued in London today gave British support, saying the American proposal is "an important contribution toward solution of the most critical, outstanding problem in the middle east."

The statement said also that Britain is ready to join in the U. S. proposed loan to assist Israel in paying compensation to Arab refugees in Palestine.

YES, THAT'S DAVY!
PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—Sunday School Teacher Ethel Gillespie told her Eastside Terrace Methodist Church pupils to draw pictures giving their impression of King David of Israel. Six of the youngsters turned in sketches with a coonskin capped David.

ANDARKO, OKL. (AP)—Mrs. Vera Jones thought her bed springs squeaked more than usual when she went to bed. She called her brother, Billy Nievar, who found an opossum in the springs.

R. Specht, Thurmont, Killed In Car Crash
THURMONT, Md. (AP)—Robert W. Specht, 24, Thurmont machinist, was killed and another man seriously hurt early today when their car ran off Maryland 81 and hit a tree, state police said.

Paul E. Wireman, 33, also of Thurmont, was taken to Frederick Memorial Hospital with severe cuts of the face, arm, and leg and possible spinal and internal injuries. Police said he apparently lost control of the car. The accident was near Thurmont about 2:30 a.m. Specht, whose survivors include a wife and son, was a machinist at a Frederick Brush Co.

RESTORATION OF FLOOD-DAMAGED AREAS STARTED

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eastern Pennsylvania continued today the job of putting together the pieces of its scrambled homes and highways, battered little more than a week ago in the worst flood in the area's history.

The American Red Cross announced that most of its emergency work was completed and that it was concentrating on settling displaced persons in their homes, or, in some cases, in new homes.

East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg—the two hardest hit communities—expected to have natural gas service restored today. Here and there, temporary bridges replaced washed out bridges, opening some roads to traffic again.

But officials were warning everyone to avoid all non-essential travel through the flood area.

Guards Leaves Today
Most of the Pennsylvania National Guardsmen pressed into service to maintain order through the region were expected to leave by today.

The state and federal governments set up offices to help eastern Pennsylvania recover in some measure its losses.

Federal housing administration workers were assigned to the flood areas to handle requests for loans to people needing money to restore their homes or build new ones.

Farmers and businessmen also were in line for loans to help in rebuilding.

Meanwhile, the Scranton school board last night decided to postpone fall school opening for one week—from Sept. 7 to Sept. 14. The Scranton Roman Catholic schools took the same action.

The Scranton health department recommended the action because of post flood conditions and polluted water. Scranton suffered a serious water shortage when the Lackawanna River burst out of its banks in East Scranton and smashed several main water lines.

TRUCKS COLLIDE ONE FIREMAN IS KILLED, 4 HURT

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—One fireman was killed and four others injured —one critically — when two fire trucks collided today at an intersection enroute to a box alarm.

The Hanley Hose Co. truck with only the driver aboard struck the rear of the Moyamensing Hook and Ladder Co. truck at 5th and Edgemont Sts.

The Moyamensing truck was spun all the way around, spilling all four occupants. The driver, Joseph Wright, 50, a veteran Chester fireman, was killed.

John F. Owens, an off-duty policeman substituting for another man in the volunteer group, was taken to Chester Hospital. He was reported in critical condition with head and other injuries.

Paul McDevitt, 32, was taken to the same hospital with back injuries.

The Hanley truck driver, William Crowley, 52, also was moved to Chester Hospital. He suffered severe lacerations of the legs.

The fourth man on the Moyamensing Truck, Walter Collision, 23, another volunteer and a son-in-law of Wright, was treated for lacerations.

Police said the Hanley truck was scheduled to pick up several volunteer firemen on the way to the scene and it was for this reason that the truck had no passengers when the crash occurred.

The box alarm, two blocks from the accident scene, was pulled when an auto crashed into the Third St. bridge at Edgemont Ave., causing some smoke and extensive gasoline and oil leakage on the highway.

WOULD REVAMP FLOOD RELIEF

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Smith, House Republican floor leader, said today a House bill to permit the state civil defense council to coordinate relief in time of disaster is the "most important legislation" in the present flood emergency.

Smith said he would urge immediate action of the measure when the General Assembly returns from its two week recess next Monday.

He said the bill, introduced earlier this month and sponsored by himself and Rep. Readinger, House Democratic leader, would permit the council to move immediately into disaster areas, such as those created by last week's floods in eastern Pennsylvania.

The GOP leader said the proposal would permit the council to coordinate its relief measures with the federal program already initiated by President Eisenhower.

"Once these powers are granted the defense council, it will be ready to implement and direct any program of emergency relief that the governor proposes and the legislature approves," Smith declared.

WIDOWER, 60, MURDERED ON WEDDING EVE

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—City Building Inspector Donald E. Graham was found slain yesterday on the eve of his planned marriage and while his fiancée was flying west for the wedding.

Police Chief August G. Kettman said robbery apparently was the murder motive, for Graham sometimes carried large sums of money and was known to have been on a round of night clubs Thursday night, probably in celebration of his impending marriage.

Graham, 60, a widower, was known as a friendly, convivial man. His fiancée, Mrs. Marie Everett, 47, Pittsburgh, Pa., divorcee, arrived at Los Angeles International Airport last night, expecting to be met by Graham.

Met By Policeman
Instead, she was met by Policeman Nick Mass and Miss Lyn Waite, Graham's secretary, who told her what happened. She collapsed. Then she sobbed:

"He wrote me every day. He didn't have an enemy in the world."

She said she had been in Germany visiting a son. She and Graham had planned to be married next week, she said, and go to Yellowstone National Park on their honeymoon.

Graham's body was found yesterday in the blood-spattered kitchen of his home where he lived alone. A sheet, twisted around his neck, also was knotted around his hands behind his back.

Police found a mixed cocktail in the kitchen, an unopened beer can in the living room. They theorized that Graham might have been slain while mixing a drink for someone he met Thursday night. An empty money clip was on the sink.

The body was found after Jack Sanders, assistant building inspector, became worried because Graham didn't come to work yesterday.

Later Graham's empty wallet and automobile were found 20 miles away on a road in Banning.

Chief Kettman said a young woman and a young man were known to have been with Graham in night clubs the night before. Search for them for questioning turned to Los Angeles County.

LETTERS TO GOD

Every time anyone does something outstandingly kind and generous, or writes something to someone who gives him a lift, it's the same as writing a note to God! His eye is upon us all, and He likes to follow people in their daily journeys.

How can anyone walk a dozen feet in a natural garden without noticing the many varieties of leaves, ferns, vines and flowers that live out their lives in a democracy of beauty? Every time we translate an experience that gives to another just a little more hope, comfort, or faith, that's another act that goes to God like a letter.

I believe that each day we should compose such letters and see that they go special. All about us are letters that God writes to us — as seen in the trees, the clouds, the sunshine, in mossy paths, in the inspired song of birds, and in the smile of a child. Unless these letters are personal they lose their high significance. You see these letters go to everyone, but so many people can't read! When that happens God just whispers. Every healthy person can hear.

There is a privacy and intimacy about the letters we write to God, and what He writes to us, because they come from special sources
— the one from Heaven, and the other from the heart of us. How many times I have stood, or sat, with a friend and both of us radiating love of that before us, but without either expressing a word.
I such a time I have said to myself: "He's writing a note of confirmation to me."

I discovered an exquisite tiny vine today that had crept through the velvety green moss. I have never met with a leaf so exquisite and so inspiringly beautiful — so small that people step on it as though it were worth no notice.
Yet it challenged me, and I wrote a note to God telling Him of my discovery!

Why are so many things hidden from us? I guess it is to make us hunt for them. You have to dig for gold and other precious metals and minerals, diamonds and other precious stones found deep in the ground. Whenever I look upon the beautiful star in a sapphire I salute
God with a bow and a little note!

AGE OF WONDERS

My grandfather, wise in mechanical things,
Knew much about levers and rivets
and springs.
And I think, since it's long since
God called him away,
What fun he would have were he
living today.

The word "electronics" to him
was unknown.
In his time a plane overseas
hadn't flown.
And the thing that we know as a
twenty-inch screen,
By my granddads had never been heard of or seen.

At morning a newspaper brought him the news,
But no one on radio shouted his views.
The toast for his breakfast was made at a grate;
Not by a device at the side of his plate.

I remember my grandfather
telling to me
The wonders and marvels that some day would be.
But to see them he wasn't permitted to stay.

How proud he would be were he
living today.

EVERY KIND OF AID RUSHED TO STRICKEN AREAS

By JAMES DEVLIN
TORRINGTON, Conn. (AP) — The flood disasters have dealt a blow to any idea that politicians have little to do except smoke big cigars and lead lives of ease.

The new flood applies from the top officials down to the lowliest sewer commissioner in the smallest communities.

They really have been putting out since the floods struck the Northeast a week ago. Many have slept scarcely a wink since then.

President Eisenhower symbolized concern of public officials when he broke off his Colorado vacation to fly into the flood areas for conferences with governors of the flooded states.

In Connecticut, Gov. Abraham Ribicoff has visited virtually every stricken scene, called a special session of the Legislature, blocked the moving of pre-fab houses out of the state, and taken time to blast any effort to woo industry out of the area.

Releases Machinery
Secretary of Commerce Sinclair
Weeks arrived in Hartford yesterday and immediately released half a million pieces of machinery held in reserve in case of an atom bomb attack.

He said the machinery, of "every kind imaginable," was available to Connecticut on a need basis for cleanup or other work.

Here in Torrington, Mayor William Carroll typifies the hard-working official of the disaster communities.

It is no time for pomp. Carroll,
a former lieutenant governor,
works at his desk in his shirt-sleeves. His desk is so covered with reports on the flood and rebuilding situation that he keeps his telephone on the floor. It rings incessantly.

He answers pleasantly, no matter how tired he is or how unimportant the call.

Carroll hasn't estimated the damage to his city. His first job, he says, is to care for the people and to get services restored.

TOTEM POLE TO OFFER COMEDY

"The Tender Trap," a comedy that won favor in New York, Chicago and other cities, has been scheduled for seven performances at the Totem Pole Playhouse beginning Monday.

This comedy tells the story of a New York bachelor besieged by beautiful women intent on marriage. It was described by metropolitan critics as being not only funny but also "somewhat rueful and truthful about the dilemmas of the twentieth century courtship, when the financial independence of career girls, unaided by scheming mothers, gives rise to the question of whether they must do the wooing or remain unwedded."

Cliff Cuthren will be seen as a settled married man who visits New York and is amazed at the feverish husband-hunting of which his bachelor friend, played by Doug Robinson, is the target, and June Prud'homme will be portraying a talented and fetching radio-station violinist, the "most gallant and attractive man-hunter of the play."

These three are supported by Nancy Devlin, as a resolute younger woman who is encumbered by no silly notions about a career but is concentrating solely on capturing a spouse, and by Joe Scapace as a trombonist whose entrance in the third act has been called "the funniest stage entrance in theatrical history."

Cover a slice of browned tender ham with a can of cream-style corn and bake in a moderate oven
for about three-quarters of an hour.
A little grated onion or green pepper, or both, may be added to the corn if desired.

Scientist Scoffs At Psychic Phenomena

WASHINGTON (AP)—A University of Minnesota scientist contends that believers in mental telepathy, clairvoyance and other psychic phenomena are guilty of human error or deliberate fraud.

Dr. George R. Price, research associate at the university, writes in Science Magazine that he will doubt their claims until there has been "just one experiment that does not have to be accepted on a basis of faith in human honesty."

Writing in the publication of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, Price said the only acceptable explanations for experiments in psychic phenomena are "clerical and statistical errors and unintentional use of sensory clues" or "deliberate fraud or mildly abnormal mental conditions."

Indians Whip Yankees And Take Second Spot; Dodgers Bow To Reds; Senators Win

By ED WILKS

If the Cleveland Indians can win when they're crippled, how's anybody going to beat 'em when they get healthy?

Manager Al Lopez, who's marveled all year at how his Tribe has managed to stay up close in the American League pennant race, again last night, yet the Indians were without three of his boys smacked the New York Yankees 5-2 and climbed back into second place.

The victory upped the Tribe to within one game of the first place Yankees, carrying them past the Chicago White Sox, who tripped to third with a 10-0 pasting by Washington. The White Sox, only 1 1/2 back despite three straight defeats were held to two hits by Pedro Ramos, a 20-year-old righthander.

Cleveland was without Larry Doby who pulled a thigh muscle; Gene Woodling who has bruised ribs, and Vic Wertz, stricken with polio. Yet the Indians battered Tommy Byrne, usually a tough gent to handle, for 12 hits in seven innings.

Fain Smacks Three
 Ferris Fain, a castoff with a bum knee, subbed for Wertz and had three hits good for two RBIs. Hoot Evers, recently off the hospital list himself, replaced Doby and had two hits, scoring once.

Bob Lemon, another ex-casualty, scattered nine Yankee hits in the meantime and took his 14th victory, although Ray Narleski had to get the last two outs. Phil Rizzuto and Gil McDougald homered for the Yank runs.

The White Sox, tired from three doubleheaders in four days, managed only a fourth-inning double by Mennie Minoos, who ran his hitting streak to 19 games, and a two-out single by Jim Rivera in the ninth off Ramos. The 6-foot Cuban, 48 for the season, walked only two and struck out three.

Detroit Beats Boston
 Washington scored six runs in the first inning as Dick Donovan, making his second start since his appendectomy, lasted through just six batters.

In the other AL games, Detroit knocked fourth place Boston farther into the background 5-4 while Kansas City edged Baltimore 3-2 on Enos Slaughter's eighth-inning home run.

The National League race aroused itself as Cincinnati smacked Brooklyn 4-2, cutting the Dodgers' lead to 10 games—the shortest spread since their 9 1/2-game edge June 10. Milwaukee's second place Braves whipped New York 7-1.

St. Louis kept Philadelphia from replacing the Giants in third place 4-1 and Chicago snapped a seven-game losing streak 6-3 at Pittsburgh.

Boston, 5 games behind, swung for 11 hits, including homers by Sammy White and Jim Piersall, but Billy Hoeltz hung on for his 13th triumph. Bill Tuttle hit two doubles and a home run to pace Detroit's 10-hit attack on five Boston pitchers.

Johnny Temple had three hits as Cincinnati denied Carl Erskine his 100th major league victory, and knocked in the winning run with a double as the Redlegs broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh. Gil Hodges homered and Duke Snider, breaking a slump, had three singles off winner Don Gross, who needed help from Buster Freeman.

Brooklyn now has lost nine of its last 13 games.

Milwaukee wrapped the Giants up early, going five games up on the New Yorkers with Del Crandall's bases-loaded home run off Ruben Gomez in the second inning. Bob Buhl spaced eight hits for a 13-8 record and his fourth straight victory.

Willard Schmidt cut off Philadelphia's six-game winning string with a five-hitter while the Cards ran up a 2-0 lead on Curt Simmons in the first four frames.

The Cubs whacked 11 hits, with Ernie Banks getting a double and triple, while Sam Jones, who walked eight, permitted three Pittsburgh safeties.

Wertz Has Polio, But No Paralysis

CLEVELAND (AP)—Polio-stricken Vic Wertz was in "good" condition in an isolation ward today, and the Cleveland Indians' physician reassured the other players about possible contagion.

Dr. Don Kelly told the Tribe in the clubhouse before last night's game with the Yankees that exposure does not necessarily mean other players will get the disease.

Wertz's illness was diagnosed yesterday, but as yet there has been no sign of paralysis.

There are 129 different nations represented among foreign students in the United States.

U. S. TRAILING IN DEFENSE OF ITS DAVIS CUP

By ED CORRIGAN

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—To say that the position of the U.S. defending Davis Cup team is difficult would be putting it mildly.

Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas have two strikes on them. One more and they're out and the coveted trophy returns to Australia.

Trabert and Seixas try to keep their faint hopes alive on the polished turf of the West Side Tennis Club today when they engage Lewis Hoad and Rex Hartwig in the doubles match of the best-of-five event.

Even if Trabert and Seixas win the doubles, they'll still have to win the final two singles tomorrow. Tony is paired with Ken Rosewall and Seixas meets Hoad.

Yank Unimpressive
 Only once in Davis Cup history has a team gone down to defeat in the opening singles and managed to win the cup. That was in 1939 when Australia's Adrian Quist and Jack Bromwich dropped the first two matches to America's Bobby Riggs and Frank Parker, and came back to win the next three.

Trabert and Seixas were unimpressive in defeat yesterday. The near-capacity throng of 13,500 half-expected Rosewall to lick Seixas. That he did, 6-3, 10-8, 4-6, 6-2. It was Rosewall's 10th victory in 12 meetings with the 33-year-old Seixas.

But there probably wasn't a soul who thought Hoad, a big, blond youngster who blows hot and cold, could humble Trabert, the king of the world's amateurs. He humbled Trabert 4-6, 6-3, 6-3, 8-6.

Pushed By Hoad
 Trabert certainly didn't perform like a fellow who had won 16 of 19 tournaments over the season, capping it off by sailing through Wimbledon without the loss of a set.

He failed to take advantage of his openings. Hoad, in turn, pushed him to the backcourt when it became apparent Tony wasn't going to press the issue. At the start, Hoad, fearful of Trabert's cannonball delivery, stayed in the backcourt and sent back easy returns. That's how the American won the first set.

But from the start of the second set, Hoad began taking Tony's service on the rise. No longer timid, he moved a step inside the baseline.

SNIDER HAPPY WITH THREE HITS
 BROOKLYN (AP)—Duke Snider, the Dodgers centerfielder, felt a little kinder toward Brooklyn baseball fans today, mainly because of the three hits which lifted his batting average above the 300 mark again.

The Duke, who had connected with only 5 hits in 34 times at bat before last night's spurge, had labored Brooklyn fans the worst in baseball and said they didn't deserve the pennant. His accusations came Thursday night after he had been booed by the fans.

He backtracked some yesterday when he said "I didn't mean all the fans" but he still was greeted with a mixture of boos and applause as he came to bat the first time last night against Don Gross of Cincinnati. The boos grew louder as he struck out.

But the next time up he connected with the first of the three singles, which raised his average to .303. The cheers increased with each hit and by the end of the game, the National League's No. 1 man at runs batted in apparently was back in the good graces of the fans.

BAGS 99 OUT OF 100 PIGEONS
 VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—The biggest Grand American Trapshoot in history winds up today as the nation's crack shots decide the national doubles, over-all and all-around championships.

Today's events come as an anticlimax to yesterday's Grand American Handicap in which Logan Bennett, 39-year-old saleswoman and father of six from Hodgenville, Ky., triumphed over 2,023 other competitors with 99 of 100 from the 19-yard line.

Bennett, appearing in his first Grand American after taking up trapshooting only two years ago and never having won a registered shoot of any kind, figured to pick up in the neighborhood of $8,000.

Other championships yesterday: Women's, Mrs. Dolly Isaacs of Kenosha, Wis., who broke 93 of 100 from 20 yards; R. L. Schwieger of Grand Island, Neb., won the junior event with 95 from 21 yards and George Heaney of Indianapolis took the professional title with 94 from the 24 yard line.

TITLE GAME TONIGHT
 ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Phoenixville and Ephrata meet today in the next to last round of the state American Legion junior baseball tournament. The winner meets Valley View tonight for the championship.

All three teams have been beaten once in the double elimination series. Phoenixville eliminated Souderton, 4-3, yesterday on a grand slam eighth inning homer by Bill Shockey and went on to hand Valley View its first defeat, 3-1.

Ephrata eliminated Olyphant, 5-1.

FRIENDSHIP WINS
 Friendship evened its series with Newville at one game each by blasting out a 13-0 victory Friday evening. The teams are engaged in a best-of-seven series for the Bi-County Baseball League playoff championship.

Taneytown Soccer Practice Monday
 All candidates for the Taneytown High School soccer squad are asked to report for the initial practice Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

Coach Bernard Decker urges all boys interested in soccer to report. All basketball candidates are asked to report at the same time.

STEINOUR BOYS SPLIT MATCHES

Sid and Rod Steinour exchanged 6-4 sets in the finals of the Teen-Age Tennis Tournament, held Friday evening at the Recreation tennis courts.

The third set was postponed because of darkness, and rescheduled for 2 o'clock this afternoon. If the 15-year-old Sid wins, it will give him the title, as it will be his second win over his 17-year-old brother. If Rod wins, the third and deciding match must be played.

Sid won the first set at 6-4. Each held service early in the set, to run the score to 2-2. Then Sid began to charge the net more frequently, scoring winners on both accurate placements and hard overhead smashes. He broke Rod's service on the fifth game, and then held his own, for a 4-2 lead, and then ran out the set, 6-4.

Rod stood down in the second set, and Sid lost some of his sharpness at net. Each held service until Rod had a 4-3 lead. He then broke Sid's service on the eighth game, to take a 5-3 lead. Sid broke him right back in the ninth, but Rod won the set on the tenth game, 6-4, when Sid's last two shots from the net failed to clear the net.

Eastern League
 By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 It was quite a night for Eastern League pitchers. The boys not only came through with three strong, route-going performances but they socked a pair of home runs as well.

In the only slugfest, Williamsport whacked visiting Binghamton 12-5 to tie the Triplets for fourth.

One game still separates the four runners — up. Reading, although beaten on five hits, 5-2, by Schenectady and Don Cardwell, continues 8 1/2 lengths in front and is virtually assured of a playoff spot when the regular season winds up Labor Day.

Allentown's Dick Ricketts defeated host Albany 8-1 on five hits as his mates clobbered three Senator hurlers for 14 hits. Neal Treweek paced the attack with a three-run homer, double and single.

Elmira's Less Fessette set down Johnstown 3-1 on seven hits for his sixth victory in 14 decisions.

Cardwell whiffed 11 Reading batters and smacked a bases — empty homer.

Binghamton pitcher Zack Monroe also homered. But Williamsport bounced him with six runs in the fifth to erase a 5-1 deficit.

DOUBLE CATCH
 ROGERS, Ark. (AP)—J. W. Elders, local angler, filled his fish cooler and his tackle box at the same time. He caught a six-pound, 10-ounce black bass whose jaws were festooned with nine plugs of assorted sizes, three flies and 16 minnow hooks.

It was the Eagles' third exhibition win this season in the National Football League. They are undefeated.

EX-WRESTLER NOW Part-Time Farmer
 KANKAKEE, Ill. (AP)—Tossing around a few heavy bags of fertilizer is no problem for ex-wrestler Jim Jeros who farms 40 acres as a hobby. He commutes to Chicago every day where he works in an aircraft plant.

The 275-pound Jeros grappled with some of the biggest names in the wrestling business but gave it up during World War II when he served with the Seabees.

Bill McKenna, captain of Brandeis University's football team, gained 40 pounds and grew six inches during his four college years.

DELaware Takes Head
 The Jersey boys then went ahead in the fourth on a double by Hunter and a single by Bill Sillm. That set the stage for Foulke's homer in the bottom of the fourth to tie the game and Cominski's winning clout in the seventh.

Trotman was the losing pitcher for New Jersey. Vince Strascynski got the win. Both boys pitched only the last inning.

The starting pitchers, Herbert Harrison for New Jersey and Tommy Kaczor for Pennsylvania, were relieved at the start of the seventh under a tournament rule prohibiting pitchers from hurling more than 12 innings during the series. Each had pitched six innings prior to yesterday's games.

In a consolation game, Auburn, Ala., edged Winchester 1-0 in seven innings to take third place in the series. Auburn scored its run on Leroy Papley's single with Frank Salter on base.

Arrest 35 In N.Y. In Sex Ring Crackdown
 NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty-six teenage girls and nine men have been seized in a police crackdown on an alleged sex ring operating on Staten Island's North Shore beaches and woods.

Authorities said they learned two months ago that the men, mostly in their 20's, were playing the girls —aged 14 to 17—with liquor and marijuana and then taking them to isolated sections on sex parties.

A policeman posed as a bobby soxer to mingle with the girls at their favorite hangout, a Richmond Ave. luncheonette.

Lafayette Faces Rebuilding Line

EASTON — As the Lafayette College football squad prepares to begin drills on September 1, Steve Hokuf, beginning his fourth season as head Maroon mentor, faces a number of problems.

Hokuf's biggest task will be rebuilding practically the entire line. Of 14 last year's first string linemen, 10 were graduated last June.

Another problem for Hokuf is to find a fullback to replace Captain-elect Dan McCarthy, who has been dropped from college for scholastic difficulties. Two of last year's quarterbacks also fell by the wayside scholastically and no longer are in college.

WGET The Radio Voice Of Adams County Observes 5th Birthday

As "Voice Of Adams County," WGET Served A Unique Community Varied In Population, Interests, Industries And Habits With Programs Patterned For Every Taste Over Five Years

WGET, Gettysburg, the Voice of Adams County and the county's only radio station, celebrates its fifth year of operation today. The station began broadcasting Sunday, August 27, 1950. Dedication services led by Judge W. C. Sheely took place at 2:30 p.m. Many Adams County officials attended and participated in the events. Telegrams and messages were received from Governor James H. Duff, Senator Edward Martin and many others.

The opening of WGET coincided with the inauguration of Adams County's Sesquicentennial Week. During an "open house" at the radio station's brick colonial home on the Harrisburg Rd., 3,800 persons visited the studio, control rooms, and reception lobby. The station is owned and operated by the Times and News Publishing Company. Its power output is rated at 250 watts and its wave length 1,450 kilocycles. Ever since it opened it has been on the air daily, Monday through Saturday from 6 a.m. to 12:05 a.m. and Sundays from 8 a.m. to 12:05 a.m.

Unique Community
As the Voice of Adams County, WGET serves a unique community. For Gettysburg and the surrounding area is the home of the nation's largest government owned shrine in the historic battlefield, a college and seminary town, the center of the richest fruit growing area in the country, and the largest fruit processing plants in the world.

With a population of 44,084, Adams County contains 108 industrial plants making products worth $58,540,000 and employing 7,429 workers. There are more than 3,100 farms with land valued at $18,000,000, crops at $9,329,000 and livestock at $7,079,430.

Adams County is host also to national and international fairs of all kinds and to hundreds of conventions. It has seven high music for every taste, athletic events including professional, college and high school sports, advertising for local merchants, church news, social events, a community calendar, weather reports, farm features and many other programs are offered daily by WGET in the public interest.

The broadcasts of local, state, national, and world-wide news brings complete coverage to WGET's listeners on the latest happenings everywhere. News is kept "fresh" for WGET's audience from WGET sells much of its time on the of its broadcasts are in the public interest. Many hours are devoted to public service in the county — to numerous organizations, civic, religious, fraternal, and service. All denominations are represented in programs presented by the Adams County ministerium. Programs are presented by 4-H clubs, Boy and Girl Scouts, and representatives of other groups such as the Hospital Auxiliary, Little Theater, Soroptimist Club, county and borough government, Women's Club, Extension Club, DAR.

WGET broadcasts the location of fires, gives weather reports, forecasts, highway conditions, and the Lancaster Livestock reports for the benefit of farmers.

Occasionally the station acts as a feeder for network programs as it has for all the Lincoln Fellowship programs, November 19 of each year, the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Among those speakers have been Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Governor Theodore McKeldin, Maryland, Secretary of Interior Chapman and many others. In addition such noted figures as William R. Shirer and General Floyd Parks have been carried from Gettysburg College commencement exercises which are aired annually over WGET.

Each year also WGET does a series of remote broadcasts from the South Mountain Fair, handling color, entertainment, quizzing fairgoers, describing the judging of exhibits, etc. It also airs materials from the Adams County Fair.

Highly Praised
The station has been highly praised for its attention to the younger groups of the community. Programs featuring agriculture and home economics students from 7 county schools have enabled future homemakers and future farmers to gain poise and articulateness. These programs are student designed and patterned and have helped build community leaders. Teen Topics, broadcasting of high school athletic scores and games have also been aimed at the younger listeners.

Occasionally WGET, in the public service, has remained on the air after its regular sign-off time of 12 p.m. This is true of election time when WGET continues to give returns for both state and national elections until a decision has been reached in the voting. The station was also prepared to maintain a constant vigil during Hurricane Hazel last year and Hurricane Connie this year.

Original Sponsors
Fourteen of the original sponsors who bought time on WGET are still station advertisers: Sherman's Clothing Store; Gettysburg Motors; R. W. Wentz and Sons, Prosperity Cleaners, Warren Chevrolet, Zerfing Hardware, Weismar Brothers, Adams County Electric, Hart-Service Station, First

In connection with its advertisers WGET gives solid backing to such commercial ventures as "Sale Days" which the Retail Merchants Association of Gettysburg sponsors in the winter and summer of each year. Announcement of grand prize winners and individual store prize winners are carried promptly by the station.

Another phase of WGET's operation in the public service is concerned with the military. The station is prepared to alert Adams County in case of enemy attack. It is also active in Civil Defense programs and Ground Observer Corps activities. Armed forces recruiters also avail themselves of the station's support.

College Official Commends WGET For Distinctive Service

John S. Rice, Chairman of the Administrative Committee for the Board of Trustees of Gettysburg College, today commended WGET for distinctive service. Mr. Rice heads a committee of four which is conducting the administrative duties at the college until a successor to Dr. Walter C. Langsam is named.

Chairman Rice wrote WGET as follows:

"As chairman of the Administrative Committee of Gettysburg College, I hasten to salute WGET on five useful years of service to the Adams County community.

"The WGET audience represents interests of many different kinds: farmers and fruit growers, industry and industrial workers, bankers and businessmen, children and housewives, tourists and museum keepers, sports fans and scholars, collegians and college staffs, religious groups of all beliefs. It is an almost impossible task to serve this diverse public with satisfaction, yet WGET has managed it with distinction.

"In particular, WGET has been most gracious to Gettysburg College. All the worthwhile activities of the Gettysburg campus have been brought to Adams Countians. Cultural programs, noted speakers, commencement exercises, sports and musical programs, chapel exercises, to name only a few, have helped represent the Gettysburg College tradition before the Adams County public through the facilities of WGET.

"May WGET continue to serve the public good in the future as it has in the past five years."

1st Party Broadcast With WGET Guests

The first of WGET's popular "Saturday Night Party" programs went on the air September 2, 1950 with Mahlon Harzell Jr. and G. Henry Roth in charge of the show. The three gave a preview of the upcoming Bulletin season.

Other guests were Cyrus Bucher, Biglerville, who gave an account of the Church of the Brethren, Bernard Miller, R. I., who discussed the Barlow Rural Telephone Company, a farmers' line in existence for many years, John Epley, R. I., honorary mayor of roundtop and an expert blacksmith, who did much of the smithy work for the Hanover farms.

TEEN TOPICS

WGET's Teen Topics was first carried on Sept. 2, 1950 with Gettysburg High School students conducting the show. Doris Winters conducted the program on which appeared Harold Raffensperger, Mary Louise Shew, Nina Williams, and Pat Bushey.

Lester M. Blair, chief engineer, announcer was balanced proportionately between sports, women's programs and public service features.

In 1954 approximately 50 organizations were given direct support for local state and national drives and numerous others were given time to mention their activities. All told 6,639 public service announcements were made on the station.

The WGET staff is headed by station Manager, Parker H. Cunningham, a native of Cape Girardeau, Mo., and a veteran of many years service in radio. Cunningham attended secondary schools in Missouri and Missouri State Teachers lives at 144 Hay St.

Staff Members

Other members of the WGET staff include Nancy Slonaker, office manager; Robert A. Smith, announcer-engineer; J. Kenyon Weitzel, evening announcer; Charles E. Rich, production department; Don Grable, sales department; Charles W. Harbaugh, production assistant; G. Henry Roth, news department; and Lester M. Blair, chief engineer.

Between 1941-1945 he served with the U. S. Army and was radio engineer of an army sea-going tug. He is married to the former Evelyn Pentz and they live at Gettysburg R. 2.

Smith opened the dedicatory program with a recording of "The Stars and Stripes Forever," and except for military service has been a member of WGET, since its beginning.

ROTARY CLUB LAUDS WGET FOR WORTHY SERVICE

In his congratulatory message to WGET, Philip M. Jones, president of the Gettysburg Rotary Club stressed the manner in which the Voice of Adams County had always supported worthy causes. The Rotary message follows.

"On this, the fifth anniversary of WGET, it is only fitting that the Rotary Club of Gettysburg should pay tribute to the town's radio station.

"WGET, since its inception, has had as its watchword, service to the community. Its managers have been members of the Rotary Club and have been outstanding in their service to Rotary as well as to the community.

"That spirit of unselfish endeavor to promote the good of the community, which has been characteristic of their membership in Rotary, has been more than reflected in the manner in which WGET has unselfishly backed every worthwhile endeavor in the community.

"The Red Cross, The Retarded Children's Association, The Infantile Paralysis, Heart, Tuberculosis and Community Chest drives and others have found WGET unstinting in donation of its time to support these worthy causes.

"As president of an organization dedicated to the service of the community, may I commend WGET on its service to the community, a service that we all appreciate."

Youngsters Share In Anniversary

Some Adams County youngsters are going to share in WGET's 5th anniversary celebration as members of the "WGET Honorary Birthday Club." It was announced today by P. H. Cunningham, station manager. Children born during the twenty-four hour period on August 27, 1950, 1951, 1952, 1953, 1954, and 1955 will have a savings account of $1 opened for them by WGET at the First National Bank of Gettysburg.

To be eligible youngsters must now be residing in Adams County regardless of birthplace. Birth certificates must be registered by parents at WGET during next week.

OYLER PRAISES WGET HELP AS COMMUNITY AID

Harry M. Oyler, president of Gettysburg Borough Council, lauded the role of WGET as a "community tool" in the following anniversary message.

"Gettysburg has been fortunate in having WGET as its voice over the last five years.

"In every emergency, the radio station has been available to the police for the dissemination of information. It has carried reports on fires and helped prevent the pile up of traffic that occurred frequently at fires prior to the inauguration of that service. It has been of use many times in aiding the police and frantic parents in the quick location of missing children.

"The station has been active in promoting the good causes of the community and has been available to officials of the town at any time they felt further information might be needed by the public.

"All in all, the radio station is not only a source of entertainment and information, but a useful tool of community communication. On behalf of the borough may I commend it on its fifth anniversary."

Announcer Is Link In Program Setup

While listeners hear only the announcer on a WGET program, he is only the last link in a long line of persons responsible for the programs. Programs are arranged through the program department, go to the continuity department, and then the traffic department, where they are timed to the second. Then they go back to the program department and an announcer is assigned who studies it and rehearses it until finally the program is ready for the air.

WGET Has Coverage Beyond Adams Co.

Gettysburg's radio station WGET, the Voice of Adams County, has a wider range than its listed coverage area. Average coverage of WGET extends to 219,175 persons in Pennsylvania and 48,374 Maryland residents for a total of 267,549. On the west, WGET beams reach Chambersburg, on the south, Walkersville and Mt. Pleasant, Md., in the east, York, and to the north, New Cumberland.

But station manager P. H. Cunningham reports that letter writers have heard the program in Grumley, Tenn., Buffalo, N. Y., Seymour, Conn., and Hamilton, Ontario, and New Zealand.

CONTROL ROOM IS WGET HEART

From the operating point of view, the heart of WGET is the control room. All the programs are controlled from that point. The engineer has before him a large control board filled with switches and knobs. In the center is a large meter that is used to indicate the level of volume at all times. By use of these switches, the engineer can place the microphone, turntable, or remote program on the air.

Two turntables are located in the control room of WGET of the dual speed type so that all types of recordings may be played. Most recordings for broadcast stations are of sixteen inch size and made to play at thirty-three and one-third rpms.

The station has a music library of two units. One of these is for regular phonograph records such as are used in the home. The other, and most frequently used unit, is a regular transcription library furnished especially for WGET. This consists of over five thousand selections with about 60 new selections added each month. The big 16 inch transcriptions have five musical pieces on each side.

Tape Recorders
WGET is also equipped with the most modern tape recorder. One is mounted in the control room. One of the most important pieces of equipment is that used for monitor work. The frequency of WGET is allowed to vary only ten parts in one million four hundred fifty thousand. To keep check on this and the quality of the transmitted signal, a GE type BM3A broadcast station monitor is used.

Rounding out the control room of WGET is the 250 watt transmitter built by GE and designed to insure the best signal with the highest quality. The transmitter is 75 inches high, 30 inches wide and 25 inches deep and weighs over 900 pounds. It has its own built in cooling system.

By way of comparing the equipment at WGET with a home radio, the home radio has about six tubes. WGET has over 200.

PAPEETE, Tahiti (AP) — This French equatorial island has discovered that it has some temperate climate.

High on the plateau of the inland mountain mass the air is cool and bracing. Authorities are planning to build roads to the plateau so health resorts can be established far from the coastal heat.

Lions Hail WGET "Helping Hand"

President Earl E. Zeigler of the local Lions Club sent the following congratulations to WGET on its 5th birthday.

"The Gettysburg Lions Club congratulates Station WGET on the fifth anniversary of its founding.

"It has given five years of useful service to the Gettysburg community. Whenever a community project needs a helping hand, WGET is always willing and ready to render aid. We are thankful for your past services and express our best wishes for the future."

An Editorial

Centinel" and it continues to be the policy of The Gettysburg Times and Radio Station WGET.

Dedication to the service of the area and the people they serve, in accordance with the philosophy of Mr. Harper's slogan, accounts for the fifty-three-year existence of the daily newspaper and the five-year span of the radio station. Few areas in the world, the size of Adams County and its environs, have had the advantage of such services over so long a period. Maintenance of services of the high and dedicated standards of The Gettysburg Times and WGET is no light task nor was it ever.

Accept Responsibility
Joined as they are in fine performance of dedicated tasks of high responsibility, it is with pardonable pride that the entire staff of The Gettysburg Times salutes its younger colleague and congratulates the excellent staff of WGET on the station's fifth birthday.

As important factors in the sound development of Adams County and its environs, The Gettysburg Times and WGET will continue to follow the precepts of Robert Harper and serve the people of this wonderful area "With Honor to Ourselves and with Profit to Our Patrons."

WGET, like The Gettysburg Times, accepts as an honor the responsibility of disseminating the news and interpreting not only the events of the day but, of equal importance the commercial news of the businesses and the markets which has everything to do with the prosperity and the well being of the thousands of people residing in the area.

WGET Library Has Over 5,000 Disks

WGET offers a large variety of music over the air from a record library that includes over 5,000 musical pieces ranging from hill-billy to classical. A card index enables station attendants to locate any record within a few moments. The index files the recordings by name, the orchestra playing the selection, and the type of music.

In addition to the musical recordings the station has on hand 3,500 recorded sound effects to provide background for plays or other programs to be put on the air.

WGET subscribes to the RCA recording service which sends new numbers monthly. About 60 titles are added by the station each month.

WGET TRAINING COUNTY YOUTHS FOR LEADERSHIP

For approximately 300 Adams County young men and women, WGET "has been a very helpful part of their general education," according to Richard C. Lighter, county supervisor of agricultural education.

Since the establishment of the station five years ago, Lighter has, each fall, in cooperation with the agriculture teachers in six county high schools and the home economics teachers in seven schools, set up a weekly program schedule in which the Future Homemakers and Future Farmers of the county have appeared at regular intervals over WGET.

Presented as part of the farm hour over WGET, during the school months, the programs have been as varied as the youngsters taking part in them.

Varied Programs
Sometimes five or six Future Farmers or Future Homemakers appear to give a skit on their work. Sometimes, when students are specially honored, they appear to tell of their special activity in an interview with their teacher, sometimes Lighter and some of the teachers themselves appear.

But generally the programs are student designed and student conducted and Lighter points out that "this has been a wonderful experience for those who take part. One of the objectives of both the FFA and FHA is to train leaders for the community. Experiences in which youngsters get up and talk, or present their ideas in plays or skits helps them to become accustomed to the demands of leadership. Participation in a program over WGET helps to a large extent to overcome natural shyness and to help widen the viewpoint of the youngsters and helps in the long run to make them better citizens, interested in the communities as well as their homes."

SMITH STRESSES WGET ROLE IN BUILDING UNITY

"The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce wishes to join others in paying tribute to WGET on this its fifth birthday. Because of the illness of President Mares Sherman, that duty becomes my privilege," said L. E. Smith, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Throughout these five years the radio station has proven a valuable asset to our community. Through its coverage of an area much larger than our borough, it has brought about an enlargement to our community and has served to introduce the town to many people whose contacts with Gettysburg were previously very meager.

"Because of that, it has helped our merchants by bringing new customers to Gettysburg, by permitting their message to reach out to many people who previously had not known of the many values available in our town.

"But more important, WGET, in bringing the message of Gettysburg to surrounding communities, in awakening people in other towns to the nature of activities here, has also brought about a widening interest on the part of people in our town in the activities of those communities surrounding us. It has helped to enlarge the community and contact between communities, in a manner that cannot help but be beneficial to all within the area.

"One could mention all the public service that WGET has performed over the last five years in honoring it, but to my mind the greatest service has been to unite the Adams County area and the area immediately to the south of the county, in Maryland, strengthening ties of friendship between the residents of the various communities and giving Gettysburg a better opportunity to serve its neighbors."

WGET

WGET, who made the opening announcement five years ago will repeat that announcement in today's program.

Receive Congratulations
In addition to the special broadcast this evening, the station also plans to present next week congratulatory messages sent by other radio stations in the state.

Among those who have congratulated the station on its fifth anniversary are U. S. Senator Edward Martin who telegraphed: "Permit me to take this means of adding my congratulations to the many which I know you are receiving on the fifth anniversary of Station WGET, Gettysburg. May there be many more such milestones on your long road to success and, public service into the future."

A telegram from Governor George M. Leader to Parker H. Cunningham, station manager, read:

"All Pennsylvania sends its heartiest congratulations to you and your whole staff of WGET in Gettysburg. Good communications are the life line of the commonwealth reports and river stages as well as for good entertainment. The Commonwealth thanks Radio Station WGET for five years of distinguished service and wishes many more birthdays."

Byrd And George Predict U. S. Will Slash Foreign Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sens. Byrd (D-Va.) and George (D-Ga.) predicted today Congress, shooting for a balanced budget and tax reduction, will take sharp aim next year at the foreign aid program.

Byrd, who heads the Senate Finance Committee, said he believes substantial reductions can be made under the $2,700,000,000 Congress voted last session for foreign military and economic assistance.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, said he will support "drastic" reductions in aid funds next year, although he resisted efforts to cut this year's total below the amount finally approved.

President Eisenhower asked last January for 3 1/2 billion dollars in new foreign aid money. There are indications his new request next January may be about the same.

Wants Drastic Cuts
George said "further drastic cuts" can be made in foreign aid as one means of attaining a balanced budget in the next fiscal year beginning July 1. If such a balance appears certain, he said he will support reductions in individual income taxes, George, who also serves on the Finance Committee, was interviewed by telephone from his home in Vienna, Va.

The possibility of a balanced budget in this fiscal year, ending next June 30, was raised earlier this week by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey. But the secretary declined to discuss possible tax reduction, saying it was "entirely too early" to do so.

Byrd said in a statement the only kind of tax cuts he wants to see enacted are those made possible by a retrenchment in government spending. He said too much dependence should not be placed on "boom revenue" now flowing into the treasury on the crest of a high level of business activity which he said may not last.

The Virginian said he has no doubt the budget can be balanced. But, he added: "It would be foolhardy to balance the budget and then unbalance it by a premature reduction of taxes. The sound balancing of the budget must come about by reducing expenditures."

In the House—where tax legislation originates—Rep. Eberharter (D-Pa.) said he regarded Humphrey's statement as "laying the background for a recommendation for a tax cut in a political year." The presidential election will be held in 1956. However, Eberharter said he expected both Republicans and Democrats to push for tax cuts next year.

Rep. Dingell (D-Mich.), like Eberharter a veteran member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, said he would "insist" that excise tax reductions be considered first, to be followed by individual income tax cuts and corporate levies last.

BIG CHEMICAL PLANT BURNS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A large section of the Cargill Corp. chemical and oil plant near suburban Carnegie was destroyed last night by fire which followed a series of violent explosions.

So intense was the heat and so dangerous were exploding drums of chemicals that firemen battled until early today before extinguishing the fire.

Flames and smoke shot high into the sky for more than three hours before the fire was pronounced under control.

Fire department officials estimated the loss at $350,000.

The first blast let loose in a 1,500 gallon resin thinning tank in the thinning department of the sprawling plant. Flames ignited three other big tanks. These contained about 5,000 gallons of naphtha and resin.

Although firemen from 20 suburban departments kept the flames from spreading to the main plant they stood by helplessly as 55-gallon drums of various inflammables exploded. Thousands of spectators watched the blaze. The plant is about 10 miles southwest of midtown Pittsburgh.

Albert Bleakley, plant superintendent, said static electricity was believed to have set off the first explosion.

Pledges Research On New Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wilbur M. Brucker, new Secretary of the Army, promises research on new weapons will be given "the highest possible priority" because the Army "must be foremost" in this field.

To this end, Brucker yesterday created the post of Director of Research and Development. He announced the job would be filled by William H. Martin, a former vice president of Bell Telephone Laboratories. Martin has been a Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense.

The Hoover Commission on government reorganization said earlier this year that military research has not been "sufficiently daring and imaginative."

Sterling Hayden Divorces His Wife

LOS ANGELES (AP)—He-man actor Sterling Hayden has divorced his wife—who is exactly 12 inches shorter than he—with the explanation that she henpecked him.

"She tried to dominate me completely," Hayden, 39, told Superior Court yesterday. He said that his wife of eight years, Betty, 33, a former Pasadena, Calif., society figure, tried to "dictate who should be my friends and order my social and business conduct."

She did not contest his suit, which charged mental cruelty. Hayden retains custody of their three young children, and Mrs. Hayden for the next four years will get 30 per cent of the actor's income, estimated at $100,000 a year.

PROBE SECURITY RISK HANDLING

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration's handling of "security risks"—a prospective 1956 campaign issue—is being probed by a public inquiry next week by a special Senate subcommittee.

Chairman Johnston (D-SC) announced without elaboration yesterday the Monday-through-Thursday hearings would cover 11 cases, including the controversial treatment of Wolf Ladejinsky and Abraham Chasnov.

Ladejinsky is the Russian-born land reform specialist fired by Secretary of Agriculture Benson as a security risk last December and hired with full security clearance by the Foreign Operations Administration in January. He now holds a top U.S. foreign aid post in Indochina, advising on land reform. He works for the International Cooperation Administration, FOA's successor.

Chasnov, former chief of the chart section in the Navy's Hydrographic Office, was fired as a security risk, then cleared and reinstated. His job was abolished last fall, and he refused to accept another position the Navy offered him.

GUARDSMEN END GAP TRAINING

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—The bulk of Pennsylvania's National Guardsmen headed for home today at the end of their annual two-week summer training period.

Other units left Indiantown Gap Military Reservation yesterday amid praise for the Guard's "spirit of dedication" from Maj. Gen. A. J. Drexel Biddle Jr., adjutant general.

About 2,000 of the guardsmen spent most of their encampment on duty in the northeastern flood disaster area.

Ceremonies marking yesterday's activities included the promotion of Lt. Col. Donald D. Hays, Erie, to colonel.

Pvt. Donald Florus, Co. B, 728th Ordinance Battalion, Lock Haven, was awarded highest individual honors with an M1 rifle. In competition with 68 other riflemen from all units of the Division, he scored 189 of a possible 210 points on the 200-yard range.

The high individual score with carbine was awarded Sgt. Mark R. Weaver, Battery D, 899th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion, Lebanon. He scored 174 out of a possible 180 points in competition with 50 other men.

Bumpass Flown To US With Skull Fracture

TOKYO (AP)—Lt. Guy H. Bumpass was flown here from Seoul today with a severe compound skull fracture, suffered when he was shot down by Red Korean gunners near the demilitarized zone Aug. 17.

Today's announcement was the first official U.S. confirmation of the Communist claim that Bumpass had a fractured skull. Since his return from the Reds last Tuesday, U.S. Army doctors and Air Force information officers have said only that he had "head cuts." Bumpass has been isolated in a military hospital.

The department said yesterday the new field has been designated Greenlick and is adjacent to the long established Ledy Field.

COAL MINERS WAGES RAISED

WASHINGTON (AP)—All but a fraction of the nation's 200,000 soft coal miners were in line for a $2-a-day wage raise today as the result of a Southern Coal Producers' Assn. settlement with John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers union.

The Southern association, representing mine owners employing from 40,000 to 50,000 miners, and several small operator groups, agreed yesterday to the same pay as last year. The settlement was the last week with the Northern segment of the industry, which employs about 125,000 men.

Indiana and Illinois producers were expected to sign up today. The Southern operators displayed unhappiness as they signed the one year contract bringing the miners' basic daily wage to $20.25 through a 15-cent-an-hour raise Sept. 1, and another 10 cents next April 1.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern producers, figured the labor cost increase would boost coal costs from 48 to 52 cents a ton and would be "harmful" to the industry.

Automobiles Need Special Services To Correct Their Shortcomings, Says Expert

For many motorists R.P.M. merely stands for the number of restaurants per mile.

Feeling The Car's Pulse

Just because one is pressed for time is no reason to remain in ignorance of the fact that the car needs special servicing to correct its shortcomings. There actually are a number of tests which the driver can make as he goes along, typical being the fact that he should notice a slack of about an inch in the brake pedal before resistance is felt. This is known as free pedal play. It must also be found in the clutch pedal, otherwise there will be excessive clutch plate wear.

Too much slack in the steering wheel, measured at the rim, is a sign of need for an adjustment. If the engine is idling normally the fan will rotate evenly and without hesitations. Shock absorbers that need attention can be located by rocking the car up and down by its bumper ends, and then suddenly letting go. The car should then level off immediately, and not keep rocking.

Grasping one of the front wheels at the top and bottom, and trying to shake it, will tell if there is looseness. If both of the front wheels reveal this looseness the chances are that the king pins and bushings are worn, but if looseness is felt at only one wheel then this wheel needs a check on its bearings.

For Future Reference

Among overheating cases that can be viewed as on the rare side is one which developed where a car was driven on a hot day with a very high tail wind. This prevented normal cooling of the radiator. I have never personally run into this sort of thing but believe that it accounts for one or two instances where I found the engine running a little too hot for comfort and without any evidences of actual trouble with the car.

New York City lowered and repositioned all 14,000 of its street signs as a convenience to automobile drivers who have trouble enough operating their cars in heavy traffic without having to scan the skies for too high signs.

The next step in operation of automatic transmissions will be selector buttons instead of the current lever, similar to the system used on the SOV car of early days . . . Used cars left out in the cold next winter may be heated by the new outdoor heating system in which radiant heat is focused on the engines.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"You can't be in a business like this without constantly running head-long into the fact that a lot of car troubles are the reverse of what you'd expect. Naturally you have to reverse your thinking when trying to remedy them."

"I got to thinking about this the other day when an owner drove in with a car that shimmied when the brakes were applied. Usually applying the brakes is the best way to slow down and check a shimmy, so I was puzzled for a moment or two. Then I got to thinking about the brakes and what they might be doing to the wheels. Checking I found that the front drums were out of round. I cured the shimmy by truing the drums so that the eccentric condition was corrected."

Most of the front-end alignment trouble now being experienced by motorists is due to misuse of the accelerator pedal when cars are traveling over rough roads. The effect is something like striking the curb when parking the car. Wheels are subjected to terrific strain when bowling over humps and falling into chuck holes, and the net effect is to knock the wheels out of alignment. Remember also that higher speeds result in higher mileage because you can travel farther in a given period of time. It all adds up to more strain on the car's sensitive front end.

Although most cars have the hand brake operating through the two rear brake shoes few drivers ever think to use this when there is any question as to which of the brakes is giving trouble such as squealing or grabbing. By stopping with the hand brake only the rear brakes are in use. If this can be done without any brake noise or roughness then the trouble is definitely with the front brakes.

Those automatic drives are amazing contraptions but we need not treat them so carelessly. When they first came into the motor picture drivers were a bit skeptical and thus were more inclined to give them every cooperation. Now there's a tendency to swing to the opposite extreme.

Among the precautions are the importance of setting the control lever precisely in the right position for any desired action of the transmission. Avoid unnecessary movement of the accelerator pedal because in many cases it is linked with the transmission control. That is, don't indulge in unnecessarily abrupt handling of the pedal. Don't go into reverse while the car is rolling forward. Don't coast backwards while the lever is in "drive."

Real Accident Checker

It's an old rule of mine, but whenever I am approaching a blind intersection I always give a short toot on the horn, and repeat it after a moment's interval. This prevents any possibility of another driver tooting his horn at exactly the same time as mine, thus leading each of us to believe that we hear only our own horn and that the coast is clear.

You can save the battery, the lamps of the directional signals and the flasher if you remember to switch the lights off manually after you have made a turn and not wait for the automatic switch to come into action. Also after you have warned the man behind that you are about to make a turn when the green light comes on it is pointless to keep the signals flashing in his face. I give him it just as I am about to turn.

Basic For Trouble

Dirt in the carburetor can cause a lot of stalling if it gets under the needle valve of the float bowl, but once it has passed this spot there is further trouble it can do and which will show up in poor performance. Most likely result of such misplaced dirt is an excessively lean mixture, due to the dirt clogging carburetor jets and fuel passages. One result might be overheating in hot weather if the car is put to work in hilly country.

Narrowing It Down

In The Motor Mail

Whenever I ride over a chuck hole the rear end of my car bottoms. The springs seem to be in good condition, and the shock absorbers have sufficient fluid. What could be wrong? N. L. A. You probably will find that one of the shock absorbers has bent linkage.

Q. I can't use my car because the brakes drag. A friend of mine checked and found that only the rear brake shoes are dragging. What now? W. K. D.

A. The automatic transmission on your car has a special arrangement for preventing the car from creeping ahead when you stop at a traffic light with the selector lever in the "Drive" position. Your car dealer will know what is needed to release the brakes.

Q. There's a pronounced flat spot when accelerating my car. Have had the carburetor rebuilt but this has not helped other than to show much better idling. G. J. McB.

A. This looks like a case of too low fuel pump pressure.

Q. What do they mean by percolation when referring to modern carburetors? J. J. F.

A. It is nothing new, but there are new ways of combating this action of fuel in a hot carburetor bowl. When the engine is switched off the bowl may get hot enough to cause the fuel to boil. Some carburetors have an anti-percolation valve which opens up when the throttle is closed. Percolation often explains the smell of gasoline when the car has been gassed after a run.

Q. There is excessive bucking of the drive line of my car. It seems to me that this indicates worn universal joints, but the car hardly seems old enough for this. T. McB.

A. This action means that the engine needs tuning. Due to its roughness it shakes the whole drive line.

Q. Where is an anti-sway bar more effective — at the car's front end or the rear? S. M. E.

A. Engineers have different ideas

FRANCE AWAITS AGREEMENT ON MOROCCAN PACT

AIX LES BAINS, France (AP)—French government leaders confidently awaited word today that Morocco's strongest nationalist faction will support Premier Edgar Faure's plan for ending strife in that North African protectorate. Faure and a committee of five French ministers last night wound up a five-day conference with Moroccan leaders on the program. It is aimed at ending bloodshed in the troubled area by giving the Moroccans a measure of self-rule.

The French leaders apparently weren't too concerned over a threat by Sultan Mohammed Ben about this. You'll be interested to learn that on your particular make and model car there are anti-sway bars at both ends. That probably counts for the car's good cornering on curves. The extra bar adds to manufacturing costs. Of course, remember that newer cars are lower, away less.

Q. The engine of my car has a decided miss at high speeds. I can usually get it on the open road. I suppose at this mileage the car should not be without its shortcomings, but up until now the motor has performed very smoothly. N. R.

A. I think that the exhaust manifold may be clogged with carbon. When you next have a valve job done take off the manifold and clean it.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford 7, Connecticut, and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

Moulay Arafa to rebel against one key point in the reported plan—that providing for his own ouster. The nationalists have demanded Moulay Arafa's removal as a first step toward any agreement.

Jaure Seeks Support

Faure was to fly back to Paris today to seek support from all elements of his government for the plan.

The proposed settlement was to be put before the full French Cabinet Sunday. Still an official secret pending Cabinet approval, it was reported reliably to be based on these points:

1. Removal of Moulay Arafa and his replacement by a council of the throne—a sort of regency. The nationalist-backed former sultan, Mohammed Ben Youssef, would be permitted to return to France from his exile in Madagascar pending a final decision on his future. He was deposed two years ago.

2. Establishment of a government of national union under the council of the throne. The govern-

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Important thought to keep in mind:

There's no need to worry about stalling in hot-weather traffic; no need to worry about balky hot-engine starting! Just fill up at your Gulf station with New Super-Refined Gulf NO-NOX—the gasoline that's made with evaporation control to prevent vapor-lock. And always protect your engine with New Gulfpride H.D. Select, the motor oil that controls carbon.

New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline delivers not just the highest octane but full working octane because it's super-refined to burn clean

See what a difference Gulf super-refining makes. Gulf takes out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—at the refinery—to bring you new clean-burning Gulf NO-NOX.

Now! For the ultimate in working octane performance, always use Gulf's super-refined gas oil team... New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline and New Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil

TELLS OF POW CAMP RIGORS

DELAKE, Ore. (AP) — Airman Danny Schmidt, whose marital affairs have attracted widespread attention, has recounted from his honeymoon cottage here some of the rigors he underwent as a prisoner of the Chinese Communists.

A B29 gunner, he was taken prisoner in the Korean War Jan. 13, 1952, and was held captive 32 months.

While he was prisoner, his young wife Una, said she had married another man believing that Schmidt was dead.

Danny was reunited with his wife earlier this week and Gerry Pratt, a reporter for the Portland Oregonian traced them to a cottage at Delake, where the Schmidts went for a "second honeymoon."

Schmidt in a story by Pratt which was copyrighted by the Oregonian, told how he parachuted out of the plane after it was hit by a shell.

"I can't say what I did through the next 11 hours except that I followed survival instructions as they had been briefed to me earlier . . .

"The rest happened quickly. North Koreans picked me up in a field at 11 in the morning. They were a little rough before tying me up and leading me off to a farm house . . .

"I was in three prisons—all just about the same. They were full of Chinese criminals. I didn't get to see a prisoner of war camp all the time I was in their hands.

"Chinese torture is mostly mental—but believe me it is effective. I guess things were a bit tougher on me than they needed to be because I did a lot of things in prison I wasn't supposed to. I spent three real long stretches in solitary confinement—but that wasn't much worse than my usual cell.

2 ARE KILLED IN BUS CRASH

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (AP) — A tire blowout threw an Air Force bus into a deep dry creek yesterday, killing two and injuring 14 of the 16 airmen aboard.

An undetermined number of the 14 injured were reported critically hurt. All the airmen were from Bryan Texas Air Force Base and 14 were members of the base's baseball team, enroute to Barksdale AFB, Shreveport, La., to take part in a tournament.

Trapped in the wreckage and killed were A1C Lloyd D. Buresh, son of Mrs. Genevieve Audrey Buresh, Bolivar, Mo., and the bus driver, A1C James Clyde Kirkpatrick, son of Mrs. Mary A. Kirkpatrick, Bluff City, Tenn.

The right front tire blew out as the bus approached a bridge over a dry creek. The bus crashed through the bridge rail and landed crossways in the creekbed, its front and rear solidly jammed into opposite banks of the creek. The injured had to crawl out windows or be helped out by rescuers.
